

Since the 16th century, Champagne wines have been a staple among the greats of the world. Harvesting and gentle pressing whole bunches of grapes testify to the ancestral know-how of the Champagne region. Respect for the integrity of the berries make the most precious assets for perfect winemaking.

The full, juicy and tangy fruit typical of a great Pinot de Champagne. Without complex, it carries high the colors of Champagne, land of great wine before being effervescent.

R000 : Triple zero – 0 Herbicide – 0 Insecticide – 0 Fungicide The first Red Wine guaranteed free of pesticide residues on molecular analysis.

Technic Data

100% Pinot Noir

15 months in new barrels from the Forest of Blois

